EXT. PATIO - NIGHT

B. Moody approaches the patio table where Dorcas is engrossed in a podcast. He pulls out a chair and takes a seat.

B. MOODY
You and Wayne?

DORCAS
Yes.

B. MOODY
Are you a coward or just being cowardly?

DORCAS
What does that mean?

B. MOODY
You're rigging the game.

DORCAS
What are you talking about?

B. MOODY
People cheat when they're losing the game.

DORCAS
Maybe I decided to stop playing the game altogether.

B. MOODY
You stop fighting for us?

DORCAS
There's nothing left to fight for.

B. MOODY
So you're settling for an easy win?

DORCAS

If you are referring to Wayne, then yes.

B. MOODY

You told me that God brought us together?

DORCAS

I can't fix you.

B. MOODY

You're not God. It's not your job to fix me.

DORCAS

And it's no longer my job to fix us.

B. MOODY

So you're closing the door on us?

DORCAS

I don't see a path forward for us.

B. MOODY

You can't control every outcome.

DORCAS

At least I tried to move us forward towards an outcome.

B. MOODY

Faith in us means that we have to find our way together.

DORCAS

Together. How? When everything I build, you destroy.

B. MOODY

We are not some preconceived idea.

DORCAS

I just can't with you.

B. MOODY

And I can't without you.

DORCAS

Trust me, you can. You've been doing a lot without me.

B. MOODY

You can't believe everything that people says about me.

DORCAS

(ignoring B. Moody's last comment)

B. Moody. This is over.

B. MOODY

So, did God put us together or not?

DORCAS
(hesitating)
Yes.

B. MOODY
So, how can you walk away?

DORCAS
Some relationships are for a season, and some are for a lifetime.

B. MOODY
Is that FAITH or FEAR talking?

(vulnerable)
Fear.

B. MOODY
Love conquers fear.

B. Moody leans in, their faces inches apart.

B. MOODY (CONT'D)
And I love you.

Dorcas closes her eyes, and B. Moody kisses her tenderly. Dorcas surrenders to the moment, melting into B. Moody's embrace.

DORCAS
Why can't you just leave me alone?
