

Dr. Tryke 45, M, White (any race)

Dr. Tryke is Nolan's primary care physician, offering medical guidance and support.

Jamison (22, M, Black)

An enigmatic young man with a tumultuous sexual history steeped in degradation, Jamison possesses a seductive allure that captivates those around him. Skillful in the art of pursuit.

INT. CLINIC - DAY

Nolan sits across from Dr. Tryke, his frustration palpable as he remains speechless, Jamison by his side.

DR. TRYKE

Nolan, your test came back negative.

JAMISON

I'm undetectable.

DR. TRYKE

(to Nolan)

And since your contact with him was within 48 hours, the shot I administered will significantly reduce the risk of you contracting the virus.

JAMISON

Reduce the risk?

DR. TRYKE

(to Jamison)

It was irresponsible and potentially criminal for you to engage in sexual activity without informing your partner of your status.

JAMISON

I didn't get a chance to tell him.

DR. TRYKE

(scolding)

He had a right to know before engaging in any sexual activity with you.

JAMISON

How? He took it. He raw dogged it.

DR. TRYKE

Were you sexually assaulted?

JAMISON

Naw. We both was drunk as fuck.
